

HELMDON PARISH COUNCIL

CO-OPTION POLICY

This is the co-option policy of Helmdon Parish Council, hereinafter referred to as “the Council”. This policy sets out the approach used when co-opting members onto the Council and ensures that there is compliance with legislation and that a fair and equitable process is carried out.

NOTIFICATION OF VACANCY

In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the office of parish councillor, the Clerk will immediately inform West Northants Council’s (WNC) Elections Coordinator and the Notice of Vacancy provided will be displayed on the website and noticeboards. This will be displayed for the period of time stated on the Notice of Vacancy.

At the same time, the Clerk will advertise the vacancy for co-option within the Parish for a period of 4 weeks (or other such period that the Council may agree) on the Council notice boards and website. The end date for receiving all applications must fall after the period stated on the Notice of Vacancy.

If, by the date on the Notice of Vacancy, WNC have received written requests for an election from ten electors for the area, then the vacancy must be filled by election and the Council cannot fill it by co-option, even if there are insufficient candidates.

If no request for an election is received by WNC by the date on the Notice of Vacancy then the Council can fill the vacancy by co-option. This is done as an agenda item within an Ordinary meeting – the Council must endeavour to fill the vacancy within sixty days.

Councillors elected by co-option are no different to any other member; co-option is a legitimate form of election as part of the election process.

- he/she/they is 18 or over; and

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. In the advertisement, the Council will invite interested candidates to apply to the Clerk by a specified date.
2. At the Council meeting candidates are invited to say something about themselves and Councillors have the opportunity to ask questions of the candidates. Each candidate will be allocated a maximum of three minutes.
3. The Chair will request the Councillors present to nominate any of the candidates. Candidates will require a proposer and seconder to progress to the voting stage. If there is only one vacancy, a Councillor may only nominate or second one candidate.
4. The Chair will then place the names of those nominated into alphabetical order and proceed to vote. Councillors will have one vote per vacancy to be filled.
5. Voting will be in accordance with Standing Orders by a show of hands and will continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of those Councillors present. At this stage, the successful candidate will be declared co-opted.
6. Should no single candidate receive a majority on the first vote, the candidate with the lowest number of votes is eliminated. Voting will then take place for the remaining candidates until one person receives an absolute majority.
7. The successful candidate is then declared co-opted to the Parish Council. As they will not have been summoned or have proper notice of the meeting they will not be permitted to take part in any vote or decision making that occurs during that particular meeting.
8. The person elected must sign the Declaration of Acceptance of Office in the presence of the Proper Officer of the Parish Council – this declaration is retained in the parish records. They will also be required to provide the Clerk with their Register of Member's Interests within 4 weeks of accepting office, this will be sent to WNC.
